Urbino Dec. 28th 1824

dear Grandpapa

I wish you a great many happy returns of this day. Mother found ^{you} in such good health that she thought you had grown younger. I hope this birth day finds you still younger & that you & Grandmama may long live to enjoy every blessing.
I hope however that you will not be so frolicsome as like Icarus to soar to near the sun as I fear tumble into the Butternut creek would be dangerous at this cold season. We have had no winter yet, not ice enough to slide on. Father Mother Sally & I walked to Town & returned to dinner ever not thought of you. Give our love to Grandmama

Grandmama our Uncles Aunts & Cousins

Believe me my dear Grandpapa your affectionate granddaugh^r

Julia Ursin Niemcewicz & Jean

My dear grand papa

I wish that you would ask Uncle Lee to send for my Goat as soon as there is any opportunity of her being brought by a careful person. I value her too highly to leave her in Gen.
Roots dominions for fear she should learn to drink whiskey - your affect^l grand^{son} John Jean
